Audit Summary

4Culture King County December 9, 2013

ABOUT THE AUDIT

This report contains the results of our independent accountability audit of the Authority from January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012.

We evaluated internal controls and performed audit procedures on the activities of the Authority. We also determined whether the Authority complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures.

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every transaction, activity or area. Instead, the areas examined were those representing the highest risk of noncompliance, misappropriation or misuse. The following areas were examined during this audit period:

- Cash receipting
- Open public meetings

RESULTS

In the areas we examined, the Authority's internal controls were adequate to safeguard public assets. The Authority also complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures in the areas we examined.

FINANCIAL

Our opinion on the Authority's financial statements is provided in a separate report dated December 9, 2013, which includes the Authority's financial statements. That report contains no findings.

Description of the Authority

4Culture King County December 9, 2013

ABOUT THE AUTHORITY

The Cultural Development Authority of King County, doing business as 4Culture, was established January 1, 2003, by the King County Council. The Authority was established to further the goals and objectives of the King County Comprehensive Plan, to establish cultural resource policies and to operate in a manner that ensures King County citizens and visitors have access to high-quality cultural programs and experiences. The Authority operates under a charter, which provides the articles of organization for the Authority. The charter and all amendments were adopted by King County.

The Authority's Board of Directors is composed of 15 directors and four ex officio members. The Directors are appointed by the King County Executive and subject to confirmation by the King County Council. The ex officio members are three designated King County Council Members and the Authority's Executive Director.

The Authority administers public art programs, cultural programs and funding programs in arts and heritage, including cultural education, sustained support, cultural facilities and special projects. The Authority is primarily funded by King County hotel/motel taxes and King County One Percent for Art money. The One Percent for Art money comes from financing for King County construction projects. The Authority uses that money to purchase and commission public art on behalf of King County and provide management services for the county's art collection. For fiscal year 2012, the Authority's expenditures totaled approximately $8.2 million.

AUDIT HISTORY

The Authority was established in January 2003 and we audit the Authority annually. The past five audits of the Authority have reported one area of concern. The 2009 audit contained an internal control finding over financial statement preparation. This finding has been resolved. No findings were reported in 2008, 2010, 2011 or the current 2012 audit.

ABOUT THE STATE AUDITOR'S OFFICE

The State Auditor's Office is established in the state's Constitution and is part of the executive branch of state government. The State Auditor is elected by the citizens of Washington and serves four-year terms.

We work with our audit clients and citizens as an advocate for government accountability. As an elected agency, the State Auditor's Office has the independence necessary to objectively perform audits and investigations. Our audits are designed to comply with professional standards as well as to satisfy the requirements of federal, state, and local laws.

The State Auditor's Office employees are located around the state to deliver services effectively and efficiently.

Our audits look at financial information and compliance with state, federal and local laws on the part of all local governments, including schools, and all state agencies, including institutions of higher education. In addition, we conduct performance audits of state agencies and local governments and fraud, whistleblower and citizen hotline investigations.

The results of our work are widely distributed through a variety of reports, which are available on our Web site and through our free, electronic subscription service.

We take our role as partners in accountability seriously. We provide training and technical assistance to governments and have an extensive quality assurance program.
