Report on Accountability

Thank you for the opportunity to work with you to promote accountability, integrity and openness in government. The Office of the Washington State Auditor takes seriously our role of providing state and local governments with assurance and accountability as the independent auditor of public accounts. In this way, we strive to help government work better, cost less, deliver higher value and earn greater public trust.

Independent audits provide essential accountability and transparency for Housing Authority operations. This information is valuable to management, the governing body and public stakeholders when assessing the government's stewardship of public resources.

Attached is our independent audit report on the Housing Authority's compliance with applicable requirements and safeguarding of public resources for the areas we examined. We appreciate the opportunity to work with your staff and value your cooperation during the audit.

Sincerely,

Pat McCarthy, State Auditor

AUDIT RESULTS

Results in brief

This report describes the overall results and conclusions for the areas we examined. In those selected areas, Housing Authority operations complied, in all material respects, with applicable state laws, regulations, and its own policies, and provided adequate controls over the safeguarding of public resources.

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every transaction, activity, policy, internal control, or area. As a result, no information is provided on the areas that were not examined.

About the audit

This report contains the results of our independent accountability audit of Vancouver Housing Authority from January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2022.

Management is responsible for ensuring compliance and adequate safeguarding of public resources from fraud, loss or abuse. This includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal controls relevant to these objectives.

This audit was conducted under the authority of RCW 43.09.260, which requires the Office of the Washington State Auditor to examine the financial affairs of all local governments. Our audit involved obtaining evidence about the Housing Authority's use of public resources, compliance with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures, and internal controls over such matters. The procedures performed were based on our assessment of risks in the areas we examined.

Based on our risk assessment for the year ended December 31, 2022, the areas examined were those representing the highest risk of fraud, loss, abuse, or noncompliance. We examined the following areas during this audit period:

- Managed properties – verification of rent charges, adjustments, compliance with deposit requirements, vacancy testing, and general disbursements
- Procurement – public works, purchases, cooperative purchases, and joint purchasing agreements
- Compliance with public work projects – prevailing wages and retainage requirements
- Accounts payable – general disbursements and credit cards
- Payroll – gross wages
- Self-insurance for health and welfare and unemployment

- Open public meetings – compliance with minutes, meetings and executive session requirements
- Financial condition – reviewing for indications of financial distress

INFORMATION ABOUT THE HOUSING AUTHORITY

The Housing Authority of the City of Vancouver was organized in 1942 to provide safe and affordable housing and housing rehabilitation programs for low-income individuals in Clark County. The Housing Authority owns and leases several properties that provide housing for eligible individuals. In addition, the Housing Authority is a general partner in twelve tax credit limited partnerships and a special limited partner in one tax credit limited partnership. These partnerships are used to obtain private funding for low-income housing projects. The Housing Authority solely bears the risk and burden of control and ownership. This enables private investors to contribute to the Housing Authority's projects in exchange for a federal income tax credit.

A six-member Board of Commissioners governs the Housing Authority. Board Members are appointed by the Mayor of the city of Vancouver to serve five-year terms. Board appoints an Executive Director to oversee the Housing Authority's daily operations as well as its approximately 171 employees. For fiscal year 2022, the Housing Authority had operating revenue of approximately $71.6 million.
